

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: For company...

SENATOR BRASHEAR: I read the act to allow people to enter into these individual agreements and direct the application of the monies they've agreed that the state has allowed to be utilized for their training.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Thank you, Senator Brashear. I am...I did not understand what the implications of that section of 829 were when we passed it last year. I think that is a tremendously coercive and unfair provision for the potential employees of a company that's going to qualify for 829 credits. It is an even stronger argument for the 1368 methodology than others that I conjured up as I developed the amendment. I cannot imagine why I was unable to read and understand...

SENATOR WILL: Time.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: ..the statutes in the way that I do now.

SENATOR WILL: Thank you, Senator Wickersham. Senator Robinson. The question's been called. Do I see five hands? I do. Question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed no.
